

Upcoming Programs

Learn to Cross Stitch

Monday, April 1 at 6:30pm

New to needlework? Head of Circulation Lisa Crispin will teach you the basics to make this buzzworthy bee project! Materials provided.

Guiding Eyes for the Blind Puppy Raisers

Saturday, April 13, 2:30pm

The first in the new All Ages series "Dogs with Jobs." Come learn about the work that goes into raising future seeing-eye dogs for the blind.

The Five Stages of Hearing Loss

Monday, April 8 at 6:30pm

Shari Eberts, co-author of Hear & Beyond, will provide strategies for people struggling with Hearing Loss to use for better communication.

Fermented Beverage Class

Tuesday, April 16, 6:30pm

Learn how to make your own kombucha & fermented soda starter at home with Emily Makrez, owner of F-Word Farm and educator on all things fermenting, farming, and foraging related.

Triathlon Experience

Saturday, April 20, 10am

Wilmington resident, Carol Hilbinger will share her experiences competing in the Call to Honor Triathlon, the only Deaf woman in her age group to do so. As a bonus, you'll get to see American Sign Language first-hand as an ASL interpreter will be there to translate Carol's story for us.

Town-Wide Clean-Up

Saturday, April 27, 10am-Noon

Spend some time picking up litter around Wilmington, then bring your bag of trash to the Wildwood Street Parking lot from 10am-12pm to spin the wheel for a prize.

Planning to pick up litter earlier in the week? Bring us a picture of your hard work instead! Trash bags and gloves will be available at the library starting April 15, while supplies last.
