

Introduction to Freegal

To make use of the library's subscription, make sure you click the link on <http://wilmlibrary.org/downloads>

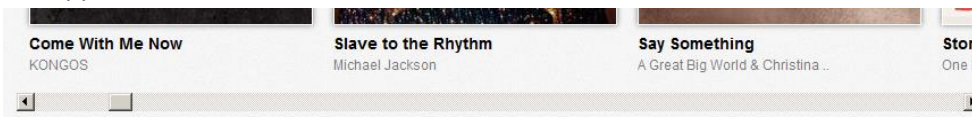

General Facts

- Login with library card # and pin. (Must be a Wilmington Card)
- Can preview 30 seconds of as many songs as you want
- Can only download 5 songs a week
- Can't download entire albums at once (can do so by downloading 5 songs of the album per week, though)
- Songs are yours forever!
- Music Videos, too

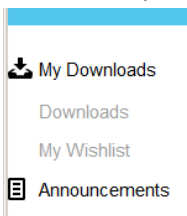

Navigation

- The lists are displayed in rows. To scroll through, you need to hover over the row and a scroll bar will appear at the bottom.

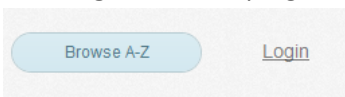

- To see your downloaded songs, click the Downloads under the My Downloads on the left side of the page.
- There is also a My Wishlist section under the My Downloads heading. This is a good way to collect all the songs you want to download but can't because you've exceeded your weekly limit. This avoids your having to search for songs each time to log back in.

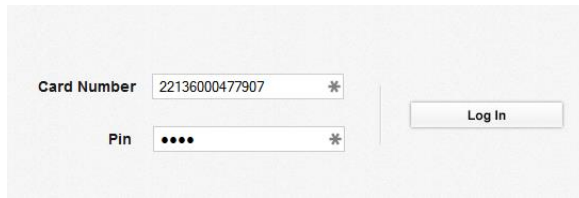

Download Process

1. Click Login on the top right corner of the page

2. Type your library card number and pin
3. Click the Log In button

Card Number 22136000477907 *

Log In

4. Type the name of song you'd like to download in the search box and click Go

Search All Search Five Long Years Go

5. Scroll down to the songs section and click download

Artist	Composer	Album	Download
Buddy Guy	Eddie Boyd	Buddy's Baddest The...	Download

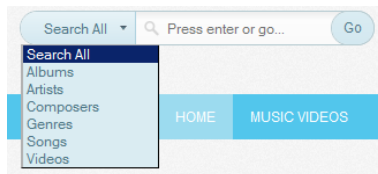

IMPORTANT: Please note that once you press 'Download Now' you have used up one of your downloads, regardless of whether you then press 'Cancel' or not.

6. Click the Save File circle (if not already selected)
7. Click OK

Now the song will be in whatever your download folder is set to. You can move it into your music library from there.

You can also narrow your search to Albums, Artists, Composers, Genres, or videos before clicking Go.
