

A Wild World

The wind, it blows
The trees, they whisper
The clouds, they change
All in a wild world

The fox, it slinks
The owl, it flies
The crickets, they chirp
All in a wild world

We run, we play
We shout, we laugh,
We see, we learn
All in a wild world

The sky, it rains
The world, it spins
The sun, it rises
All in a wild world

There are things to remember
And stories to hear
And things are always changing
All in a wild world
