Author Talk: Elin Hilderbrand in Conversation with Jane Healey

Monday, November 16 @ 7pm

Bestselling author Elin Hilderbrand will discuss her latest book, Troubles In Paradise (the conclusion to the nationally bestselling Winter in Paradise trilogy) in conversation with bestselling author Jane Healey, in this Crowdcast webinar. This event is brought to you in collaboration with area libraries.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Panel, Part 2

Tuesday, November 17 @ 7pm

Jennifer Bryson, BU Education faculty member, Melanie Patterson,

Boutwell & Shawsheen Schools Media Specialist, and Brittany Tuttle, the WML's Teen Librarian, will lead this presentation on rethinking the media our families consume through an antiracist lens, encouraging participants to:

- Rethink the media our families consume, including books, movies, and TV shows.
- Discuss how our identities shape our responses to equity in our community.
- Investigate the concept of mirrors and windows in our children's texts/media.
- Review and discuss problematic media.
- Discuss race and representation with your children.
- You will use what you learned here to continue the antiracist work we've started.

Lisa Desberg, WHS English teacher, Jaclyn Madden, WMS English teacher, and Maura Tucker, WHS Social Studies teacher, join the panel to discuss the ways in which they embrace diversity, equity, and inclusion in their classrooms.

WCTV LIVE CONCERT: Big Band Era with Brian Kane
