Director's Report

Nathalie and Assistant Director Danielle attended MVLC's 3rd annual Innovation Expo to give a presentation on the library's new privacy booth.

Nathalie attended the PLA Conference in Minneapolis. Sessions she attended were ESL Library Services, Mobile Libraries, author events and more.

Danielle talked with DPW about how to get cars to slow down from driving too fast through the parking lot. "SLOW" signs have been put out in the parking lot to hopefully help.

The most popular social media post has been the Bookstore Next Door's 19th birthday on Facebook, and the library staff at the High School's career fair on Instagram.

There has been an increase of 31 subscribers to the library's online newsletter. The tech team had helped 47 different patrons during their Tech Help sessions.

Work on the library's new website redesign continues. The website is set to release in late June.

The Intro to Curling program at Philips Academy Rinks was one of the highlights of April. Adult Services Librarian Erin is hoping to rerun the program again in the future.

Library Page Adania is currently doing her internship at the library. She had been interviewing staff about their responsibilities and assisting in various projects.

Youth Services held six programs during April vacation with 142 people attending. Teen Librarian Sara and Marketing Librarian Mary attended the High School's Career Fair.

The Behind the Books program with Michael Holley was a great success with over 150 people attending.

Old Business

Director's Evaluation

The deadline for the evaluation has been postponed to June.
